Any other comments about the speakers and presentations for Day 4?

All were very passionate about their topics. Please thank them all.

Ben Kingston Hughes was excellent, more of this please

The best day so far!

So passionate which is wonderful to see

Fab conference. Thank you

More from Ben please, fabulous!

Some of the presentations have been too short & rushed. Ben was the best presenter as he brought humour into his presentation.

Ben is very engaging

Stoned children, a term I will never forget. Thank you Ben

Loved Ben's presentation found the topic. fascinating and his enthusiasm and passion shone through.

Ben has inspired me to 'find out more' about loose parts play, just when you thought you understood the meaning!

Fantastic line up!

Loved self regulation bit. Would like to hear more

Ben was so interesting!

Would love to hear Anne speak on her topic in more depth, maybe as a one of webinar. More information on Bens research would be great. Well done Eunice for following Bens funny presentation, it was just as interesting. Thank you Nursery World team

Ben was really interesting and more required!

I would love to attend a longer session by Ben Kingston-Hughes

Ben Kingston-Hughes was the highlight of the conference!

This was best day thank you

No they were all excellent

BEN was amazing

Great sessions

Ben was very engaging I could have listened to him for hours!

Ben Kingston Hughes was brilliant, really relatable, encouraging and enthusiastic.

My favourite day - very engaging and knowledgeable speakers

Anne & Ben just brilliant! Dr Lumsden was also good but maybe more practical examples needed

All speaker very powerful and extremely engaging and informative. Definitely best till last!!

Great to be inspired at this very depressing challenging time. A real boost.

BEN - what a legend!

Ben had me engaged from the first word, so disappointed that he did not talk for longer, he should have a conference all of his own !

Found the last speaker moving

Especially loved the Loose parts play

My favourite sessions by far - all so interesting and thought provoking. I could have listened to these three speakers all day! Ben was particularly passionate about the subject, engaging and inspiring.

Ben was AMAZING! I was so inspired by his passion and it confirms that our environment and what we are doing is right!
